Marty

Mart
THIS SUMMER is going to BE EXCITING, MS and Zig QRS SCHEDULING THE Band FOR A U.S TOUR. WE'LL BE going TO HOME TO Hit WISCONSEN THIS WEEKEND
Bob

Marty-
what goes on?
This school sucks
Shit but we don't have to come back
next year. Stay
Cool you bass player.
Have a wasteful summer. We've got to party. The STONES love Katie

Marty

I hope you don't get stuck with a Nazi Bitch like Sorenson again have a cool and mellow Summer Get wasted as often as possible.

Jenn Kupcunet

Marty: Shue I think your a little strange but I'll waste my time writing in your yearbook anyway! Just kidding. I hope to see you this summer and good luck with any FEMALE BODIES that you may encounter! Stay away From "things" that make people look like Jimmy Paige! See ya next year - have a great Summer. Love, SUSAN

Mart,

The beginning of this year was pretty excellent (Dean Mauro) but then it kind of stacked off. What a long strange trip it's been. Party hard this Summer. Catch ya later.

ZEKE

Marty, I don't have much to say to you because I'll see you basically all Summer so all I will say is Stay out of trouble, with your breasts.

Tony

Marty, you don't suck after all. WE HAVE TO PARTY THIS SUMMER WITH SMUT. TALK TO YOU LATER

BRUCE

MART: You Yard Ape. I will see THIS SUMMER. Shit CAT.

Marty, Party, Party, Party, Party

Bill

Fuckface! It was a real pleasure to stalk, harass & suspended with you over again. Marty, you're a sucker and freaky as hell. I have no hope for you.

Zigs

Mart
Thanx a lot for saving me at Patty Pantsed Probably would have drowned in my puke if you weren't there. I only thank you once this year & that's because we can party more this summer. Thank Again

Love, Tracy

P.S. remember 5th grade?

Marty,

Thanks for the memories of this year. I'll see you this summer at Patty Pantsed

Mart

Mart,
I don't know man,
like ah. What the hell?
I've got too much to say so I will just say this. "PISS OFF"
Roscoe

P.S. Roses smell pretty
Flowers are nice
We're leaving this school isn't it a pity.

Marty,
Sophomore year has been pretty decent!
This summer has to be a total PARTY
I'll probably be seeing you! I hope so! Love
Dave

Mart,
I think you're
a god damn twitch!
You + Tom suck! Just Kidding. I think you're a real sweet guy. Stay that way! Love always Leslie

Party Marty
We had fun it taken together w/ the Old Man :- but & hope to see ya at some parties & the beach - your hand is good! Take care - do it up!
Ruth W.

P.S. maybe next year we'll be locker
partners again!
Take it easy - but
have a kick ass summer

Marty,
Thankyou for first having in my year. I don't know it this year & don't much stupid
3 classes without you have with boring sometime it & would Chemistry w/ you partin.
through or math all our straight & will see hopefully for a fun
summer

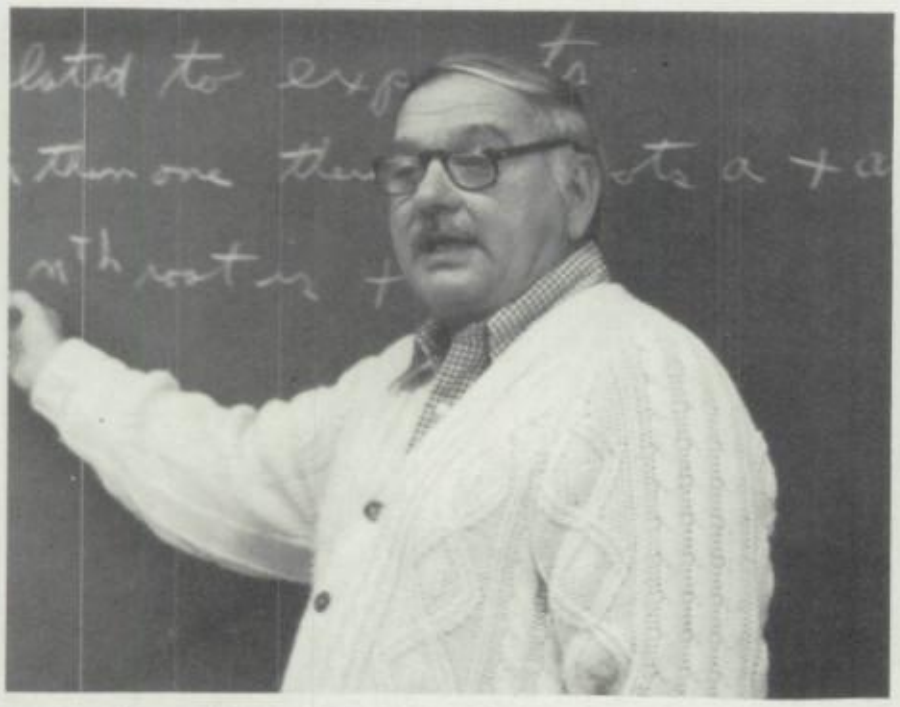
Softening the Angles

Math helps us chart our directions from the mastery of basic addition, through the sines and cosines of trig, into the sophisticated world of the computer. If we just pass algebra!



Gerhard Robien, Department Chairman, Algebra 1B, 2

To find the sum of the coaxial tangent and the squared sine . . .

I just don't think I can handle Calculus; I'm only a soph.

Running Down the Track

Lew Bertsos, Boys' Department Chairman, P.E. 1

Linda Atwell, Adv. P.E.

Around the track, around the gym floor, up and down the field, lapping the pool—we're always on the move in gym class. And I'd be right out there myself, but someone broke into my gym locker and stole my suit. You don't believe that? Then how about . . . ?

But we've got to keep up our strength!

Hope Klassman, Adv. P.E., Health

Dean Bouzeos, P.E. 1,2; Adv. P.E.

Business Education

Along the way, Business Ed gives a push by teaching us to cope with machines that seem to think faster than we can, with laws that change faster than our minds, and with numbers-that always seem to have to add up the same.

Drivers' Education

Ray Kracik, Department Chairman, Dr. Ed. CL/BTW

Forced out into the streets by the Drivers' Ed department, we quickly learn to circumnavigate those tricky one-ways, left-turn-onlys, and no-right-on-reds. What more do we need?

Larry "pie" Piemontese, Dr. Ed. CL/BTW

Mark Samuels, Dr. Ed. CL/BTW

Let's see those seatbelts fastened.

Next time I'm paying attention in BTW.

What do you mean? We don't HAVE to take the refresher course, do we?

Listen class; lying in wait for you outside these ivy-covered walls is . . .

Home Arts, Industrial Technology

Where else to keep our vehicles running, and our energy up to run them, than in the kitchens and workshops of the Home Arts-Industrial Tech departments? Just watch out for Power Saws, Drill Presses, and Killer Sewing Machines.

Forester life this year was at an all time high. It started with a bang when the new movie "Ordinary People" was released in September. Even Robert Redford came to this Forester preview which was presented at the Edens Theater in Northbrook. Now that the Foresters were stars, they had no trouble convincing people to purchase oranges and grapefruit when October's fruit sale came around. Needless to say, this Texas fruit scored a hit when it arrived in December. Unfortunately, it "hit" and hurt some of the Foresters' backs when they unloaded it. After the initial impact wore off, the Foresters were then thrust into a very busy Christmas season beginning with their third successful Madrigal dinner and complete with early morning recitals at the Northwestern train station and missing school in order to entertain at various public institutions and shopping malls. The crowning point of this year for the Foresters was their European tour. Descending on the capitals of Austria and Germany, the Foresters proved to be a smashing success, utilizing their musical ability to the utmost. And, in turn, Europe too was a smashing success in the eyes of the Foresters.

For the third consecutive season the Madrigals delighted both the high school and its audience with the festive old Madrigal dinner, which this year, was again presented at East Campus. The Madrigal dinner is rooted in the old Anglo-Saxon tradition of celebrating Christmas, and has now become a tradition at L.F.H.S. A delicious medieval dinner of ham, mashed potatoes, black plum or figgy pudding, and wassail is served in the traditional old world style, complete with servers garbed in costumes of the Middle Ages. Of course, the Madrigals are dressed to the utmost in their medieval finery. In fact, there is even a jester to entertain the audience as they sit back, relax, and enjoy this unique presentation. The songs that the Madrigals sing to everyone are historically accurate, and are fascinating in an historic, as well as from a musical viewpoint. Although the Madrigals do other concerts and presentations, the Madrigal dinner is the high point of their "Madrigal" career, and this dinner provides an opportunity for people from all over Lake Forest to view a world that has ceased to be.

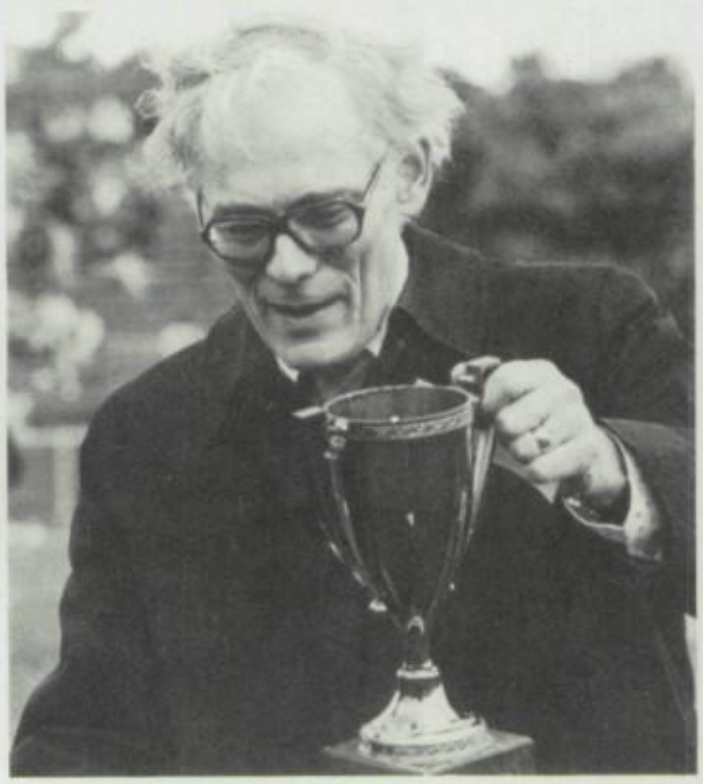
Fall Festival



Her majesty gazing at her royal subjects.

The Homecoming crowd cheers on Marti and the football team.

Homecoming 1980

Homecoming was redefined this year into a "Fall Festival", incorporating more activities, and supposedly, more spirit. Blue and gold feeling was running high, however, especially at the all-school assembly, the first of its kind since West Campus was opened. In another new tradition, Marti Blonder was crowned Homecoming Queen a day early, so that she could reign over the pre-game parade, along with her court. To the great shame of the seniors, the sophomores won the class float competition with their slogan "Bisons Beware, Scouts Everywhere". And despite the loss to Fenton on Lindenmeyer Field, the annual Homecoming Dance provided a winning end to the weekend.

The 1980 Homecoming dance, full of pleasure . . .

Theater West's "David and Lisa"

Theater West's fall play "David and Lisa" was a dramatic portrayal of two emotionally disturbed teenagers, and how they learn to deal with their problems. Starring Ed Harrigan as David and Becky Kuchar as Lisa, it featured excellent performances by Adam Lazarus, Laura Good, Debbie Meyer, and Chad Peterson in supporting roles. Christine Volpe, Sarah McElvain, Henry Wimmer, John Marcinek, and Linnette Barnes were very effective as the school children. In addition to sensitively dealing with a little-discussed subject, it also demonstrated Theater West's ever-growing potential.

The talented cast of Theater West's fall production, "David and Lisa". They were directed by Louise Chapman, and Liz Moodie was student director.

Halloween Day, 1980

Marty-
It was fun meeting you this year. Keep on playing guitar you really good! Have an excellent summer and party to the max! See ya Love, Kris Halloween Day was enjoyed to its ghoulish heights this year. East campus was invaded by throngs of (among other things) togas, coneheads, and various transvestites. Physics balloons were also in colorful array. Young Idea, of course, had its annual bake-and-communal-poem sale. At West, however, the day was scarcely observed. C'mon, you guys, we know you've got it in you. Let go of those underclassmen inhibitions, dress up a little, and, well, maybe next year. BOO!

On the tropical trail through

Directed by Jan O'Connor, with technical direction by Dave Miller, this year's musical, "South Pacific" was a tropical delight. Starring Margie Harris as Nellie, Jim Albrecht as Emile, and Scott Newman as Lt. Cable, it also featured Meg Hughes as Bloody Mary, Chip Scoglio as Billis, Andy Cochrane as Capt. Brackett, John Wendler as Commdr. Harbison, and Diane Shelton as Liat. The chorus numbers were some of the best in years, performed energetically by various sailors, marines, nurses, and islanders. The sets were top-rate as always, and the tech crew is to be commended for having to wrestle with such challenges as constructing a working shower and waterfall, and keeping several authentic palm fronds alive, green, and happy. Genuine tiki torches and tropical fog added to the exotic atmosphere. The pit orchestra and choruses were directed by Virginia Long.

Technical Director Tom Hume assembled the largest crew ever for "South Pacific." The crew spent hours assembling the "disco" water backdrop, devising a shower drain that didn't also fill the stage, "diapering" hundreds of fern fronds with toilet tissue and duct tape in hopes of keeping the finicky greens alive, wrapping yards of burlap onto palm trees and mountains, repairing broken furniture, producing auditorium-fulls of fog, making a hut big enough to live in, shifting personnel to cover last minute illnesses and exams, and trying to get everything offstage, someplace. By comparison, the play was a real "Picnic." The talent show was as challenging as ever, and, in its spare time, the crew constructed three one-act play sets and mounted to two demanding productions at West.

The Forest Scout, L.F.H.S.'s student newspaper, in its constant fight to be read, underwent a few subtle changes this year. Some of these included a brand new room, the Picture of the Week, and (yes, yes!) professionally set headlines. (Even if you can't get excited by that, we're still happy.) There was also the addition of the title Editor Emeritus to the staff list. (Now that's exciting!) In all modesty, we can't forget the Club Float victory. And, of course, there were the unexpected surprises, like a sideways sports page, but, heck, they just make things fun. Who'll ever forget Phil's inadvertent byline cuts and his inability to suppress emotion during photo sessions, Markus' cabinet fetish (which developed shortly after his infamous editorial), Bob's mysterious departures, Karen's pleeeeeeze, and Wendy's love of heights and her linea phobia. Thanks to Mr. Ed Hajost for his fearless guidance and patient tolerance, and to Mr. Rubio.

INSIGHTS, Lake Forest High School's non-fiction literary magazine, is created solely by the students at West Campus. The magazine is also unusual in the fact that every member is an editor; however, there still is an editor-in-chief. Presently, the position is held by sophomore, Karla Shulte. Recently, INSIGHTS has featured stories on the Chicago Bears' high school days, stamp collecting, horses, as well as displaying several satirical essays.

After the rejection of such names as 'Pix and Pam', 'Debbie Does Photography', and 'Les Tableaux', it was finally decided that the appropriate title for Lake Forest High School's first photography magazine was F-STOP. Founded in the spring of 1980, the magazine is mainly active during the second semester. This year, creating its second 'exhibition', the staff successfully overcame all its obstacles to produce a strikingly unique periodical.

L.F.H.S.' literary club and magazine, YOUNG IDEA, enjoyed this year the membership of numerous writers and artists. With Co-Editors Mary Salter and Lynne Schatz heading the weekly meetings and Advisor Alva Lowey's aid, the group produced the annual holiday calender, as well as the magazine. Finer moments this year included many 'Los Angeles Culture Days" (e.g.-nothing-to-do-days), Colossalus the Gorp Bowl, and the emergence of turtles as an art form. In future, the goals include gaining a larger representation of students from West Campus, and the continuance of excellent student creative writing.

Within the past two years, the format of the Math Club has been radically changed. The organization and composition of the meetings has turned to such worthy pursuits as competing in a National Math League Competition every month. The competition provides a method of "trying" the mathematics department and testing the skills and knowledge of the members along with comparing us to the nation as a whole. Games Day, speakers, and related reports are planned for the other meetings. Club officers are Jennifer Roberts, Eileen Kennedy, and Dori Ann McCulloch.

Even though playing backgammon is considered by some to be excessively preppy, a handful of students has actually gathered together to do just that. Meeting every Thursday after school while under the supervision of Mr. Cook, club members enjoy hours of rolling dice and just plain socializing. New this year, Backgammon Club was conceived in the fertile mind of Ken "the Pres" Robson and is admittedly still in the embryonic stages. Although the picture would tend to disprove rumors about the club's "withering on the vine" for lack of membership, in actuality only about half of those in the photo regularly attend. John Beggs (who holds the token post of vice president), however, foresees the 80's as the decade of backgammon, and anticipates greater membership in the years to come.

Headed by Mr. Fossell, the Computer Science Club concerned itself with (what else?) computers (we knew you'd guess it). The club served as a means for novices to learn to use the computer and its languages FORTRAN and BASIC. The club also had a good time with the lighter side of computers—namely, computer games such as baseball, blackjack, roulette, and space wars.

The Lake Forest Chess Club and Chess Team enjoyed another outstanding season in 80-81. All former club attendance records were shattered as the popularity of chess reached near-epidemic proportions at both campi . . . yes, campi! Although chess is not an officially recognized "sport" at LFHS, club participants have lobbied vigorously for varsity letters for each of the five members of the chess team, led by Charles "CQ" Craigmile at first board and Rob "Bobby" Saltiel at second. The team compiled an awesome 2-1-1 record in tournament play. The team is indebted to Chess Club Advisor Gene Brooke, whose constant support and ability to drive a school van was a great benefit to all concerned. Checkmate, everyone.

This year's Student Council, under the effective leadership of President Andy Marwede and Vice President Karen Anson, has had a very productive year. One of its most important projects was the second annual Spirit Week, five days in mid-winter filled with various themes, activities, and contests, culminating with a basketball game and a "Battle of the Bands". The Honor Committee was involved in extensive research of a new grade point system. The establishment of a proposed Advisory Board also took place. This organization was designed to fortify student involvement in class activities; interested students are now able to assist their class officers. The Council also planned a Multi-Media program, a three-screen movie and slide presentation accompanied by music. Most importantly, communication between the East and West Councils was solidified somewhat through various joint meetings.

"Songwriter Unite!" is the motto of a very musical group of people. Led by the creative and energetic Mr. Hawkins, aspiring musicians and lyricists collaborated in perfect harmony. Popular from its onset, this club has heard the sweet sounds of success.

The Forensics Club involved itself with weekend competition in such events as Poetry Reading, Humorous and Dramatic Duet, Radio Reporting, and Prose. Club advisor Mr. Ferry and President Cathy Colby spurred the group on to a successful year.

The Debate Club is made up of people who are interested in learning to argue logically, with purpose, under pressure. Guided by Mr. Richards, everyone on the team this year learned to get their point across successfully. In their words, "Debate is great!" (Hey, I'm a poet and don't know it!)

Out of the dark, murky depths' of LFHS comes a small band of creatures, an odd assembly of vermin who seek a higher goal. Struggling to speed the evolutionary process, the group attempts to answer the unanswerable questions, explores the complex issues whose answers could make or break the future of their civilization, and tries to decide on the meaning of life itself.

We finally have our own radio station! Needing no introduction (but we gave it one anyway), it's WLFH—otherwise known as "the LOOF, where the rich kids rock". Featuring the talents of such deejays as Mark Riseborough, Jim Albrecht, Dave Steck, John Carpender, Porter Wiley, Chris Bauder, and Managers Greg Field and Kyle Gustie, as well as several others, it wakes up our mornings and mellows out our days . . . Steve Dahl—look out!

The International Club, led by Advisor Mrs. McMurrin and Pres. Julie Laser, had a fun and enterprising year. Along with their traditional taffy apple, candy cane, and pizza sales, the club enjoyed various parties as well as a two-week visit from a group of French high school students who had hosted LFHS visitors this summer. We also enjoyed the company of LFHS's exchange students, England's Tracy Meakin, West Germany's Andrea Walz, and Brazil's Romero da Penna.

Walking cautiously down a dank corridor, your armor-clad companions clink with every step, and the only source of light is a single torch held by the leader of your expedition. If you can picture yourself in this setting, the Fantasy Book Club, sponsored by Mr. Mullin, is for you. The twenty-member club meets everyday during 5th and 6th periods to play one of two Dungeons & Dragons games or to read fantasy classics by Tolkien, Moorcock and Howard, among others.

D&D is a role-playing game in which knights in shining armor and sorcerers with powerful spells combat mythological creatures in underground labyrinths and dungeons. The scenerio is set by the imagination of the Dungeon Master, who referees the game, while the players move their characters through the dungeon, trying to gain wealth while avoiding being fried by a fire-breathing dragon or slain by another monster controlled by the Dungeon Master. So—come and join us—if you dare!

The Medical Careers Club is best known for two events; its annual Valentine's Day Candygram sale and the spring all-school Blood Drive. But the club, comprised of students who are interested in various health-related careers, is also active behind the scenes. This year members visited Lake Forest Hospital where they toured the various labs, and are hoping to go again, this time to watch surgery in progress. Their meetings have involved speakers from various areas of the health care field. This year's president is Debbie Danneberg.

Tracking down

Uninformed sources have reported hearing sounds of gunfire beneath the East Campus Boys' Gym and near the locker room on Tuesday afternoons. Initially it was thought that the C.I.A. or F.B.I. had opened a pre-ROTC course, however, confidential files in the Dean's office prove that the gunfire is a result of the L.F.H.S. Rifle Club. Sponsored and supervised by Mr. Strode, Rifle Club is a blast. As "Buffalo Foonman" puts it, "Everyone is welcome on Tuesdays with or without experience. We have a real bang up time!"

Cross-Country Ski Club (sometimes called 'Tom and his harem') again provided an opportunity for fellow students to cross-country ski together.

This year, the Microcomputer Club of LFHS West Campus was chartered. Not only does the club give members the opportunity to work with the computers on an extra-curricular basis, but the club also gives the opportunity to acquire skills with the computers not necessarily learned in class. Also, once a month, a guest speaker comes in and gives the club a talk or demonstration concerning computer or computer related topics.

This year, we were fortunate to host four foreign exchange students: Tracy Meakin, from England; Andrea Walz, from West Germany; Mike Colerus, from Sweden; and Romero da Penha, from Brazil. We also welcomed back LF'ers Abroad: summer exchange students Julie Laser (Japan) and Amy Johnson (Argentina); and year-long exchangers Sandy Moore (Australia), Cory Hill (Costa Rica), and Sandy Strom (South Africa).

Nouveau Prep? But, we've known it all along

As prep fashions and attitudes sweep the country, we at LFHS definitely hope that it's just a trend. It is, afterall, dreadful to be in fashion (as dicated by the mainstream, that is). This year has been simply too intense, as nouveau prep is more than LFHS, THE paragon of preppiness, can handle. For more years than we care to count LFHS has been the mid-western home of Bermuda bags, Coach bags, Topsiders, Docksiders, Fair Isles, kilts; turtle, whale, and heart turtlenecks; and future L.L. Bean represenatives. On any given day, one can find several examples of acceptable transportation on the school premises: Mercedes, BMW's, VW Rabbits, Peugeots, Jeep Renegades, and Raleigh Bicycles. To us, field hockey and tennis are not sports; they are religions. We also challenge anyone to find another school whose students regularly tackle such socially significant issues as the sock controversy (to wear or not to wear?) and the punk-prep connection (does it exist?). Our favorite animal is the alligator; our hero, Holden Caufield ('The Catcher in the Rye'); our store, B². And yes, those rumors you hear about next year's gymsuits having a pink and green duck motif are true. Where else but LFHS?

Young Republicans, Young Democrats

YOUNG DEMOCRATS: By the far left tree, Person #1, next tree, Person #2, tree with TOO visible a person, Person #3, and by the fourth tree, Person #4, (has leg and skirt in view).

"Look, Muffy, a picture of us! But who are those two Bohemians on the left? Oh, look, Muffy! Trip and Bunny are going to make Bloodies, Bitsy's brought the Beach Boys and Elvis Costello albums, and Bif and Tiffy have returned just in time to quaff D.P. with us. Wild! But those two Bohemians are très declassé. Dork city, really. Keep them away from Daddy's Mercedes. Are you ready to PARTIR? I mean, let's bolt. We're golden. We're history. Now, where'd we park the prepmobile?" Young Republicans, like their fathers before them, are dedicated to all things pink and green and the preservation of alligators, ducks, and whales, as well as these animals natural breeding grounds (Lake Forest, Hilton Head Island, and Nantucket). Need we say more?

This is definitely the most underground of clubs at L.F.H.S. Its members nearly always refuse to be photographed mainly because they fear recognition by their Republican peers. The Y.D.'s would like to point out, however, that it is possible to combine the best aspects of preppyism and Democratic politics. After all, look at Teddy Kennedy. Club doctrines include: two Cadillacs in every garage, filet mignon on every table, and socialized medicine (but never on Wednesday afternoons).

A maze of talent

An Evening of One-Acts

An Evening of One-Acts celebrated its second birthday this year. This program, designed by the LFHS Drama Club, is entirely student-run, thus giving students experience in planning and publicizing, designing and producing theatrical works. This year's show featured three outstanding productions: "The Dear Departed", directed by Sheryl Wene; "The Midnight Caller", directed by Amelia Bornstein; and "A Woman's Privilege", directed by Steve Reidy. Congratulations to everyone involved; it was great!

On the trail to blue, gold, scout power, and . . .

The second annual Spirit Week, sponsored by the Student Council, fell on a warm February Week. On Monday, the school's halls were filled with 60's radicals, and yes, a few brave souls even dared to wear mini-skirts and go-go boots. The nerds invaded LFHS, complete with sliderules and calculators. Wednesday, students ransacked their closets and dressed in their best T-shirts and hats. On Thursday, closet punksters as well as die hard Devo fans pulled out their favorite leopard and leather outfits, or just simply dyed their hair any imaginable color. Friday began with a "What's My Line?" assembly at East campus. Students tried (usually unsuccessfully) to guess former occupations of various people. Friday was also class theme day. The seniors displayed their maturity with their theme, "Senior Citizens". The junior's true character emerged with their theme "Junior Juvenile." The class of '83 disliked their "Sophomore 6-year olds," but the freshmen cultivated their status with "Freshmen Farmers." The week culminated when the Boys' Basketball team played West Leyden, Friday night. Afterwards, the students rocked to the tune of student bands Barlowe Pierce, CE, and Broken Water at the 'Battle of the Bands.' Spirit Week reinforced LFHS's (what?) undying spirit.

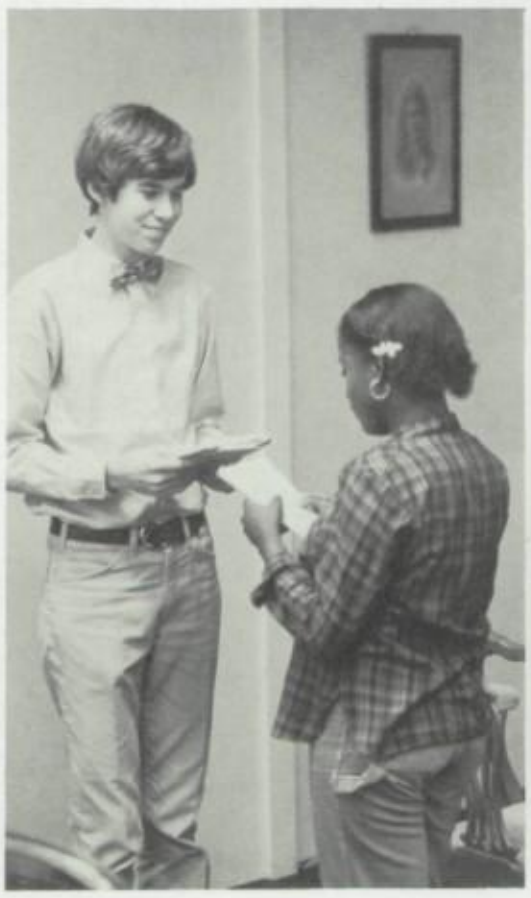
Hopping with "Harvey"

HARVEY, Theater West's spring production, was a hilarious comedy about an enormous invisible white rabbit of the same name, and his human friend Elwood P. Dowd. The play dealt with the duo's amusing encounters with a slew of skeptics. Starring Henry Wimmer as Elwood and Laura Good as Veta, it featured Beticlare Irminger, Billy Dallman, Jenny Herrman, Ed Harrigan, Nadine Larose, Steve Webster, Chris Volpe, and Paul Steinwald. Directed by Louise Chapman, and student director Alan Adams.



Presenting "Picnic"

PICNIC, this year's spring production, dealt with the hopes, dreams, and follies of the inhabitants of a small Kansas town. The play probed the emotions of its characters and of the audience. Starring Linda Good, Becky Kuchar, and Jim Albrecht, PICNIC featured Erik Codrington, Andrea McElroy, Amelia Bornstein, Lisa Cascarano, Karen Abrams, Sandy Moore, Chip Scoglio, and Dean Kendrick.

The 1980 Football team had a somewhat disappointing season this year, consisting of a 4-5 win-loss record. The Scouts faced some fierce competition early in the season including a heartbreaking loss to the Fenton Bisons in the Homecoming game, which accounted for the dissatisfying record.

Captain Joe Nolan kept the teams spirit up. Nolan was named all-conference along with Mike Capozzi, Andy Marwede, Mark Valentine, and Mark VanLaeke.

Van Laeke received the Wayne Whitmore Award, while Marwede was elected to the Joe Stein Award.

Andy Marwede also received the Pioneer Press All-Area Award.

Coaching the Scouts were Coach Barry, Olson, Meyers, Samuels, Hoak, Kracik, Occhipinti.

Manager was Robert Franzese.

All-State Selections Ken Austin and Steve Milke

The varsity soccer team, coached by Ed Kositski and Lloyd Atwell, once again proved itself the strongest contender in the North Suburban Conference. Finishing strong with a 16-5-0 record, they captured the conference championship and placed first in the North Suburban Tournament.

The team advanced to post-season play with high expectations, but their hopes ended in a heartbreaking loss to Deerfield in the third overtime of the subsectional championship game. Two players, however, senior Ken Austin and junior Steve Milke, were named to the All-State team.

All-Conference selections included Austin, Milke, and senior Jeff Ott, varsity co-captains, as well as senior team members, Rick Sasenick and Todd Steckbeck.

With a large number of starting juniors returning, prospects for a trip downstate in 1981 are looking good.

The 1980 boys' golf team closed its season with an impressive record. The team, led by captain Tom Fletcher, not only had a 13 win/2 loss record, but it also produced five players who went downstate. The team itself qualified for state and landed 12th out of 441 teams. Rich Bagatti placed first in Conference and 2nd in the Lake Forest Invitational. Jeff Hunt placed 2nd in Lake County and John Gwaltney grabbed a 3rd in Conference to add to the team's success. The Most Valuable Player was Rich Bagatti while Most Improved was Dave Kissel. For the promising frosh/soph team, Mark Giangiorgi was the captain and most valuable was Jim Morris.

The Girls' Golf Team also proved itself with what was its most successful season yet with a record of 10-2. Led by captain Kathy Teskoski, the team captured a 2nd place in districts and a 4th in Conference. Returning varsity players were Kathy Teskoski, Jean Graziano, Tami Goetz, and Karen Wegrzyn. Most Valuable Player was Tami Goetz, while Most Improved was Paige Waters.

Girls' Cross Country: Kim Zeller, Amy Curren, Julie Fiore

1980 was not the greatest year for the girls' cross country team, but there is a promise of success for the future. The team, comprised mostly of underclassmen, holds a lot of potential. The most valuable player was a freshman, Liz Tomaso.

First year coach Thomas Enright had many setbacks to overcome, including the illness of Amy Curren, who was last year's most valuable player.

Senior Julie Fiore was the captain of this relatively new team at Lake Forest, and a great deal of enthusiasm and a larger turn-out can be expected for the years to come due to the upcoming of the young members of the squad.

Cross Country '80

The Boys' Cross Country team had a successful season this year with a 12 win—1 loss record. The Scouts, headed by Coach Richard Olufs, swept the Libertyville, Antioch, and Rolling Meadows Invitationals.

Tri-Captains Todd Caldwell, Ryan Stoll, and Brendan Harris led the team to an outstanding first place in the North Suburban Conference meet.

Junior Ryan Stoll was the only state qualifier—the team as a whole missed by only 15 points. The team also produced Caldwell, Stoll and Dave Wisner as All-County qualifiers. These three, along with Brendan Harris and Dan Helburg were named All-Conference.

This exciting season also included a second place in Districts and a sixth place in the sectional standings.

The team voted Todd Caldwell as its Most Valuable Player, and Brendan Harris received the Most Improved Award.

For the Frosh-Soph team, George Brennan was named Most Valuable, and Steve Ziegler was elected Most Improved. Brennan along with Eddie Hooker led the team as captains.

Field Hockey 1980

The Girls' Field Hockey team had a disappointing season following last year's state final competition. The team had an excellent record of 11 wins and 3 losses, and they were robbed of their rightful sectional title by Deerfield in a close match of 0-1.

Through the superb coaching of Ms. Renie Dunn, the team overcame its loss of players from the previous season and eventually became a team possessing impeccable teamwork and skill.

Captains were Sandra Sylvester and Alex McLaughlin. Most Valuable was Sue Fiacco and Most Improved were Adair Peck and Dia' Chandler.

A strong JV team led by Tracy O'Brian and Lisa Giangiorgi promise another tough team next year.

The Girls' Volleyball team coached by Robin Straus survived some tough competition to an overall record of 8 wins, 17 losses. In conference competition, the team placed fourth, and captured 3rd in the Lake Forest tournament. Co-captains were Nancy Trees and Lisa Karle. Trees was also the Most Valuable Player, and qualified along with junior Anne Kohlmeyer for the All-Conference and All-Tournament teams. The starting six, Debbie Garrey, Lisa Karle, Margaret Kuwala, Mary Reidy, Kohlmeyer and Trees were the backbone of the team.

For Junior Varsity, co-captains were Janet Bruce and Jenny Heiser. Bruce was also Most Valuable Player. Kris Clark was most improved. 7-13 was their final record.

For the Freshman team, Jori Jackson and Stephanie Tomek were captains. They finished with a 3-9 record.

Both Varsity and Junior Varsity Tennis teams finished their seasons with impressive records of 9-2 and 8-1 respectably. The team was led by captain Sue Grashorn and swept first place victories in the Lake Forest, Crystal Lake, and Fremd Tournaments.

Seated first in singles was junior Heather England who captured third place in districts and was the only qualifier for state competition this year. England won the first round and lost in the second. The consolation game was called because of rain.

A doubles team comprised of Sue Werner and Sue Grashorn proved itself to also be number one for the Scouts. Kim Grashorn was voted to be the Most Valuable Player.

The Junior Varsity Team gives the team's outlook for next year positive thoughts. The team, losing only to Glenbrook North in close competition, named Amy Krouse MVP.

1981 Boys' Basketball

Lake Forest High School's Varsity Basketball team sweated to a 8-6 conference record. Coaches Dean Bouzeous and Ed Kositski were thrilled with this year's team, which was much better and "looser" than last years'. Leading the team were captains Sean Brannon and Alec Reusche, with Kyle Gustie, Dave Bloom and Tracy Carroll completing the starting five. Really racking up the points was the team's high scorer, Alec Reusche. The student body was very enthusiastic, which provided for well attended games. The coaches and team are very optimistic for next year when they hope to finish first in the conference. The Junior Varsity finished with an impressive 5-7 record. Leading the pack were high scorers Brian Havey and John Peterson.

This year's Girls' Basketball Team was led by captains Suzie Conners and Sandy Del Pizzo. As of February 19, the varsity conference record stands as four wins and seven losses. Four of these games were lost by less than four points.

The team looks promising for next season because only four seniors will be graduating from the team.

JV was headed by captains Julie Conners and Rochelle Kirutza. Seven freshman on the squad provide for a promise for a strong team in the future.

Sixteen members of the team are freshmen, who, as of Feb. 19, have an impressive record of 6 wins/5 losses.

Junior Varsity: Top: Sarah Lubes, Amy Krouse, Standing Debbie McRae, Hillary Phoenix, Tracy Williams, Lois Morrison, Molly Hart, Kneeling: Carol Conway, Andrea Papas, Sitting: Karen Herrmann, Nancy Kramer.

Led by coaches Padgett and Straus, the Girls' Gymnastics Team had a successful season with a 3-3 win/loss record.

Laura Siff and Kim Ward were captains for the Scouts

The whole team went to districts and from there it produced Michelle Barry and Leslie Ingold as sectional qualifiers.

The team suffered a heart breaking loss to Libertyville as one of the seasons upsets.

Good luck to the team next year, which should be quite an impressive one due to the fact that only three seniors will be graduating.

All in all, this year's wrestling teams had a respectable showing. Their overall record of 5-11 is misleading since they lost three meets by less than 5 points each. Conference wise, their record was 3-5, thus taking seventh place in their league. Two players advanced this season; Todd Stanton went up to 112 lbs., and John Conway went to 145 lbs. for sectionals. Both came in second in districts. In the conference, both John Conway and Porter Wiley (155 lbs.) took an impressive second, ending a rather mediocre year triumphantly.

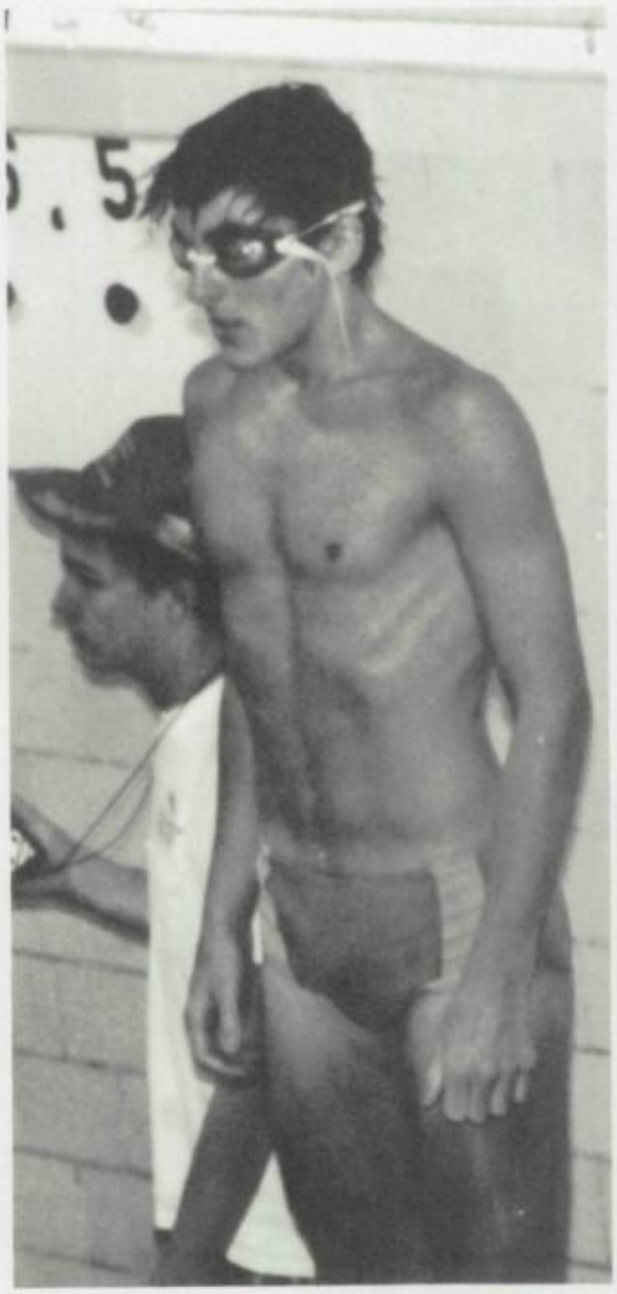
Varsity on board, Frosh-Soph on poolside: Mike Davey, David Braun, Jeff Semon, Phil Murphy, Nick Kolb, On board: Ken Haglund, Jason Kent, Dean Carey, Ken Fiacco, Bob Theer, Peter Hanrahan, Dave Jones.



The Boys' Swim Team ended with a somewhat disapointing record 0 wins/ 11 losses. The team had only one senior, Dave Jones who led the Scouts as captain along with Pete Hanrahan (junior). First year coach, Frank Quigley, should expect a fine season next year however, as young talent on the team looks promising. Individually, Dave Jones produced a first place in the conference for the 200 meter Individual Medley, Hanrahan came in third for the 100 meter Backstroke, and freshman Phil Murphy placed third in the 500 meter Freestyle.

The 1980-81 Lake Forest High School Hockey Team had a pretty respectable season this year. They finished in seventh place in the Chicago Metropolitan North Division with a 6-10-5 record. In addition, for the second consecutive year, the Scouts won their second consecutive AHAI AA White Division state crown. The team, led by Coach Doug Coleman and captain Brian O'Neill, has a lot of talent and potential for the future. The JV team also finished successfully with a 7-2-4 record, and they captured fourth in the division.

Under the direction of advisor Mr. Bertsos, the Varsity Club is opened to all students who have earned a varsity letter by participating in any interscholastic sport. The purpose of the club is to establish a closeness among the athletes and to enjoy each others' company while providing various services to the school. The main responsibilities of the club include providing a messenger service for the office faculty at both East and West campuses, crowd control and taking tickets at athletic events, and providing the school with ushers for school plays and musicals. The club also is responsible for composing, distributing, and printing up the fall sports programs. All profits received through these programs are used to supplement the equipment budget of the athletic department.

Marty-

I'm glad I got to know you better this year. I don't know how I ever started talking to you, it just kinda happened. I remember meeting you last summer at Dean Mauro's house where you were jamming. You were pretty quiet then, but you talk now amazingly enough. We should get together sometime and play Possout with everyone. When my dad goes away would be a good time probably. Sorry about not going over to your house but before I do you'll have to get a Jigger ded on your letter just forget it. I intend on getting the best. (JK). I know I'll see you at the summer jam. I hope you guys do as good as you did in the commons. Whatever happened to the carpet monkeys? I hope I get to know you better this summer. Have a great one.

-Love
Tracy

Marty, Jim gonna here you guys crank your 1960's music This summer and forever. We gotta party radically this summer. Yippee me ☮ like Putus
